

Pastor's Notes

Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God.

Dear Family,

Jesus' teaching is not only countercultural; sometimes it runs counter to our human nature. How often does self interest motivate even our good actions? Jesus tells a parable to remind his listeners that no matter how much wealth we accumulate, our lives are still in the hands of God. We must not allow money and material things - even those that rightfully belong to us - to come between us and our neighbor - between us and God.

Our Father. . .

Loving God,
you are the true source of all prosperity, Let us measure our prosperity not by our possessions,
but by the richness of love in our lives.
Open us to your Holy Spirit, that we may in turn make it manifest
in our work;
for we create and share wealth
when we make your Holy Spirit present in the world.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

In Him,

Fr. Dean
